BIOGRAPHY

General Carter F. Ham, U.S. Army, Retired

General Ham is the executive vice president of the Association of the United States Army. He is an experienced leader who has led at every level from platoon to geographic combatant command. He is also a member of a very small group of Army senior leaders who have risen from private to four-star general.

General Ham served as an enlisted infantryman in the 82nd Airborne Division before attending John Carroll University in Cleveland, Ohio. Graduating in 1976 as a distinguished military graduate, his service has taken him to Italy, Germany, Kuwait, Saudi Arabia, Macedonia, Qatar, Iraq and, uniquely among Army leaders, to over 40 African countries in addition to a number of diverse assignments within the United States.

He commanded the First Infantry Division, the legendary Big Red One, before assuming duties as director for operations on the Joint Staff at the Pentagon where he oversaw all global operations. His first four-star command was as commanding general, U.S. Army Europe. Then in 2011, he became just the second commander of United States Africa Command where he led all U.S. military activities on the African continent ranging from combat operations in Libya to hostage rescue operations in Somalia as well as training and security assistance activities across 54 complex and diverse African nations.

General Ham retired in June of 2013 after nearly 38 years of service. Immediately prior to joining the staff at AUSA, he served as the chairman of the National Commission on the Future of the Army, an eight-member panel tasked by the Congress with making recommendations on the size, force structure and capabilities of the Total Army.

He resides with his wife, Christi, in Arlington, Virginia.

Lieutenant General Gustave F. Perna

U.S. Army, Deputy Chief of Staff, G-4

Lieutenant General Gustave F. Perna assumed duties as the U.S. Army's Deputy Chief of Staff, G-4, on 18 September 2014. He oversees policies and procedures used by 270,000 Army logisticians throughout the world. Prior to joining the Army staff he served for two years as Deputy Chief of Staff, G-3/4, U.S. Army Materiel Command, one of the Army's largest commands with 70,000 employees impacting all 50 states and 155 countries.

LTG Perna's other command assignments include: Commander, Joint Munitions Command and Joint Munitions and Lethality Lifecycle Management Command, responsible for the lifecycle management of $40 billion of conventional ammunition; Commander, Defense Supply Center Philadelphia, Defense Logistics Agency, responsible for the procurement of more than $14.5 billion worth of food, clothing, textiles, medicines, medical supplies, construction and equipment items for America's Warfighters and other customers worldwide; Commander, 4th Sustainment Brigade, where he deployed the brigade to combat operations during OIF 05-07; Commander, 64th Forward Support Battalion, 3rd Brigade, 4th Infantry Division, Fort Carson, Colorado, where he deployed the battalion to combat operations during OIF I; Deputy Commanding Officer, 64th Corps Support Group, 13th Corps Support Command, Fort Hood, Texas; and Commander, B Company, 143rd Ordnance Battalion, Aberdeen Proving Ground, Maryland.

LTG Perna's key staff assignments include: Director of Logistics, J4, U.S. Forces-Iraq, responsible for sustainment plans and policies for strategic and operational logistics to sustain coalition and joint forces; Executive Officer to the Director of the Defense Logistics Agency, supporting the Director's mission of providing Army, Navy, Air Force, Marine Corps and other federal agencies with logistics, acquisitions and technical services support; Ordnance Branch Chief, Human Resources Command; DISCOM Executive Officer and G4, 1st Cavalry Division, where he deployed to Bosnia; 544th Maintenance Battalion Support Operations Officer and Battalion Executive Officer, 13th COSCOM; and G4 Maintenance Officer, 13th COSCOM, where he deployed to Somalia as a member of Joint Task Force Support Command.

He graduated from Valley Forge Military Academy with an Associate's degree in Business Administration. Graduating as a Distinguished Military Graduate, he was commissioned as a Second Lieutenant, Infantry Officer. He earned a Bachelor's degree in Business Management from the University of Maryland and a Master's degree in Logistics Management from Florida Institute of Technology. His military education includes: Infantry Officer Basic Course, Ordnance Officer Advance Course, Logistics Executive Development Course, Support Operations Course, Command and General Staff College and Senior Service College.

His awards and decorations include: Distinguished Service Medal with Oak Leaf Cluster, Defense Superior Service Medal with Oak Leaf Cluster, Legion of Merit, Bronze Star Medal with Oak Leaf Cluster, Defense Meritorious Service Medal, Meritorious Service Medal with four Oak Leaf Clusters, and the Parachutist and Air Assault Badges.

Joshua A. Wilson

Program Manager, LMI

(571) 633-7813(o) (202) 763-4749(c) Josh.Wilson@lmi.org

The DoD lead for LMI's Organizational Improvement and Human Capital Group, Mr. Wilson has more than 15 years of experience within the Department of Defense and management consulting industry. His experience ranges from implementing strategies to improving operational and staffing performance, workforce planning for organizational transformation, to strengthening the alignment between priorities, structure, processes, and culture. He has worked with both Public sector and Commercial clients. Josh focuses on helping senior leaders develop the necessary analytics to make strategic choices.

Josh currently serves top-management clients in the DoD community as they address complex strategy and policy issues with a specific focus on organizing and structuring positions within the DoD strategic resource and policy decision making forums. This expertise has been leveraged for various requirements identification and validation efforts with the primary focus being organizational capability assessments.

In 2009-2010 Josh was responsible for over 200 Million USD in United States Army Corps of Engineers (USACE) reconstruction projects in Iraq. During that time, Josh was also a liaison to the Provincial Reconstruction Team (State Department) with responsibilities of coordinating reconstruction efforts between USACE, local government officials, and Multi-National Security Transition Command-Iraq (MNSTC-I).

After departing the U.S. Military, Josh worked as an emerging market consultant helping U.S. companies develop market entry strategies for the Middle East. During that time he supported mid-cap as well as fortune 1000 companies in strategy development, joint venture partnerships, and security coordination. Josh has experience as a panel speaker at both the U.S. Chamber of Commerce and the Department of Commerce on project finance and successful market entry strategies with a specific focus on the Middle East.

Josh graduated from the United States Military Academy at West Point, where he was a member of the Varsity Basketball Team for four years, and possesses a Bachelor of Science degree in Systems Engineering. Josh also maintains a Master's of Science in Engineering Management from the University of Missouri at Rolla.
