Thank you for joining the Association of the United States Army (AUSA). Together, we will continue forward with our shared mission: to provide a voice for the Army, support for the Soldier, and honor those who have served.

Keep this handy booklet nearby as a reminder of all the ways you can engage with your AUSA community and apply these benefits to your personal growth.

ASSOCIATION PARTNERS

www.ausa.org/ap

Association membership with AUSA is an opportunity for like-minded organizations to show their support for America's Army. These organizations also receive AUSA membership benefits for all or a subset of their constituents. Visit the link above for a full list of our current members. For information about becoming an Association Partner, contact Susan Rubel at srubel@ausa.org.

CENTER FOR LEADERSHIP

www.ausa.org/center-for-leadership

The AUSA Center for Leadership delivers relevant and inspirational leader development programs to both the Total Army and the AUSA chapters. The AUSA Center for Leadership educates, inspires, and connects leaders at the brigade level and below by bridging the gap between Army priorities ("People First," readiness, and modernization) and leader development efforts. The AUSA Leadership Fellows Program, the AUSA Young Professionals Program, and the "On Leadership" section of ARMY magazine extend the reach and impact of the AUSA Center for Leadership.

CHAPTERS

www.ausa.org/chapters

AUSA has 120+ chapters worldwide. AUSA's devoted regional, state, and chapter leaders are passionate member volunteers and the lifeblood between AUSA National and its 1M+ members. This leadership, along with local members in AUSA chapters across the globe, connects with local government and business contacts to improve the professional, economic, and social quality of life in Army communities. Chapters provide a wide array of local programs to support current and former Army members and their families, from scholarships to recognition for outstanding service. Connect with your chapter to learn more.

EVENTS

www.ausa.org/meet

ANNUAL MEETING & EXPOSITION

www.ausa.org/am

The AUSA Annual Meeting is the largest land-power exposition and professional development forum in the United States. Held annually in Washington D.C., this event includes 30,000+ attendees, 700+ state-of-the-art exhibits, expert panels and seminars, and engagement with top Army and government leaders. Registration is free. Restrictions apply.

COFFEE SERIES

www.ausa.org/events/coffee-series

The AUSA Coffee Series features guest speakers from the Army and Department of Defense leadership. This event offers an unparalleled opportunity to educate, inform, and connect with key military, congressional, media, and industry personnel.

HOT TOPIC SERIES

www.ausa.org/hot-topics

Premium members save up to $225 off on-site pricing.

Active duty Military/Government attend at no cost.

AUSA's Hot Topics series features focused, one-day events covering pressing issues in national security. Members of industry, government, and the military engage with experts to discuss the current and future state of the Army.

NOON REPORT WEBINAR SERIES

www.ausa.org/noon-reports

AUSA's Noon Report webinar series features presentations by senior Army leaders who are responsible for key programs and initiatives, as well as contemporary military authors who weave together the past, present, and future story of the United States Army.

SYMPOSIA AND EXPOSITIONS

www.ausa.org/meet

Active duty Military/Government attend at no cost.

AUSA is recognized in the defense community for its professional development symposia and expositions:

- The AUSA Global Force Symposium & Exposition, held in Huntsville, Alabama, is a three-day professional development event focused on force transformation and adaptability, critical points of acquisition, research and development, and military/industry partnerships.
- The AUSA LANPAC Symposium & Exposition, held in Honolulu, Hawaii, is a world-class international event highlighting the role of land forces in the Indo-Pacific theater and their contributions in peace and war.
- The AUSA Warfighter Summit & Exposition is a two-day leader and professional development event. The primary focus of this event is the Soldier and the defense industry professionals that support all aspects of the Warfighter.
- AUSA also organizes the USA Security and Defense Pavilion at defense expositions abroad, offering networking opportunities with key decision-makers, full-service support, and increased visibility in the global market.

New events are added based on the Army's most urgent priorities. Check back often to see our latest offerings.

FAMILY READINESS

www.ausa.org/family

AUSA is dedicated to Army families, providing tools to navigate the challenges of military life and a means to communicate with the highest levels within the Army and on Capitol Hill.

Join in special events—like Town Halls with senior Army leaders and collaborations with Operation Deploy Your Dress—and access tailored resources like our Customs, Courtesies and Traditions of the U.S. Army booklet and PCS Guides.

AUSA honors exceptional Army families with the annual Family of the Year Award, which recognizes an exceptional Army family making a positive difference in our Army community.

GOVERNMENT AFFAIRS

www.ausa.org/government-affairs

AUSA's Government Affairs office coordinates our activities related to the U.S. Congress and the Executive Branch. It helps maximize Army representation in the legislative process with top-level advocacy campaigns and grassroots support. Learn where AUSA stands on key concerns with our annual Focus Areas white paper.

JOBS CENTRAL

www.ausa.org/jobscentral

Industry Partners receive a discount on job postings.

AUSA's Jobs Central is your ultimate job search tool. Create a profile and upload your resume for review by employers. Set up alerts to be notified when a job matches your profile, view resume and interview tips, and check the salary calculator to help you negotiate an appropriate salary based on job and location.

Take advantage of our free resume review and critique by a professional resume writer at Top Resume. They will also submit it through the same applicant tracking system companies utilize to show you how you appear to an employer after this process.

LIVESTREAMS

www.ausa.org/live

Can't make it to an AUSA professional event in person? Watch a session at a time and place that works for you at the link above.

PROGRAMS

ARMY CIVILIANS

www.ausa.org/army-civilians

AUSA celebrates Army Civilians' vital contributions to the Army community. AUSA's Army Civilian Advisory Committee meets regularly to discuss Army Civilian interests and address concerns.
